

"Son of the Gamblin' Man": Identity on the Plains

2010 Mari Sandoz Heritage Society Conference

Diane Quantic holds the crystal trophy she received as the recipient of the In the Spirit of Mari Sandoz Award during the Mari Sandoz Heritage Society conference at Chadron State College. With her are her husband, Bruce Quantic, and Lynn Roper of Lincoln, the society president.

This conference is presented by the Mari Sandoz Heritage Society

*With assistance from the Mari
Sandoz High Plains Heritage
Center and Chadron State College*

This conference is supported in part by the Mari Sandoz Heritage Society Endowment, the Helen Winter Stauffer Endowment and the DeMarco Conference Speaker Endowment.

Special thanks goes to sponsors:

- *KNEB AM & FM Radio,
Scottsbluff*
- KRVN Radio, Lexington
- *KCOW Radio, Double Q Country,
B 94.7, Alliance*
- KCSR Radio, Chadron

An etching of artist Robert Henri was displayed during the Mari Sandoz Heritage Society's conference. It belongs to the Henri Museum in Cozad. Holding the artwork, (from left) are Jan Patterson, the museum director; Jane Rohman, a museum benefactor and board member, her husband Ky and Ron Hull, president emeritus of the Sandoz Society. Both Patterson and Jane Rohman spoke on Henri and the museum.

Bob Reich, husband of Sandoz Board member, Christy Chamberlin, was the Faro dealer for the Gaming Contest held following the conference banquet.